Mrs. F. C. Schaefer was hostess for the Klos Tilikum Club Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. F. C. Leathers is teaching a piano class at Vashon on Wednesday of each week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Potter were guests at the Dockton dance on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Fred Vye, who visited relatives in Tacoma last week, returned home on Saturday.

Harry Enochs attended the dance given at Dockton by the shipyard company last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Aldrich were in Burton Sunday, visiting Mr. E. Irvine, who has been in poor health for some time.

Mrs. Netta Jones of Ellispport entertained the Vashon Island Woman's Club at the home of Mrs. F. C. Leathers on Tuesday afternoon.

Fat Wilber, Nat Green, Lawrence Carlson and Alfred Olsen enjoyed a midnight feast on board the "Venture" last Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Potter entertained Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Witherow and son Harry on Sunday in honor of Mr. Witherow's birthday anniversary.

Several residents of Burton are planning to attend the Burton vs. Vashon high school basketball game on Friday evening at the Vashon gymnasium.

Mr. Gunn, who owned the Peter S. Wood property in Burton, was in town Wednesday and Thursday on business connected with the place. He spent the winter in California.

Mrs. C. G. Swanson entertained over Tuesday, Mrs. Doran and baby and Miss Irene Doran of Tacoma. Miss Irene Swanson came with them for a visit with the home folks.

Mrs. L. C. Sanderson entertained at dinner Thursday night, at the home of Mrs. Hunt the following high school teachers: Miss Wainright, domestic science; Miss Teglund, commercial, and Mrs. Bonham, English.

Mrs. Ada Sutter was over Wednesday preparing her summer home for occupancy soon. She had just returned from California, where she spent the winter.

Mrs. Bonham is able to resume her work at the high school again after quite a severe illness from the effects of ptomaine poisoning at her Seattle home. Mr. W. G. Parkes substituted during her absence.

The following Burtonites attended a dance at Olalla on Saturday evening: Mr. and Mrs. C. Pointer, Mr. and Mrs. D. Green, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Green, Judson Burfield and Nathan Green.

On Friday, Mrs. W. T. Davies entertained at luncheon, at her home in Tacoma, the ladies of the Burton Chess Club: Mesdames Heilge, Lindstrom, Steinmetz, Parkes, Keating, Van House, and Mrs. E. D. Sackett of San Luis Obispo, Cal.

Mr. Fred Smith of Tacoma is building a 36x20 poultry house for his mother, Mrs. I. M. Smith on the Vye place, who will live now in Burton and try her luck in the chicken business. We wish her success for several reasons—one selfish reason being that it will make her a resident of Burton which we all desire.

Tacoma's Exclusive Boys' Suit Shop is located at 607 Fidelity Building. There is where the money is saved. Special features: Double Seat and Knees in every Suit, making them last twice as long.

Walter Larsen, who drives the Lisabena bus to Burton high school, had the misfortune to break his wrist while cranking the machine on Tuesday morning. Fred Hirsch is acting as his substitute.

The Burton friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Sackett, of San Luis Obispo, Cal., were delightedly surprised to have a visit with them on Thursday. They left the next day for Eastern Washington, where they will spend the summer with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Graedel, at "Wheataeres."

Mr. B. S. Gleason sold out what stock of groceries and household furniture was rescued from the fire recently, at Woodman hall on Thursday, and is living temporarily in a house on the beach. We are sorry to learn Mr. Gleason will not stock up again, but expects soon to move away.

After weeks of intense suffering Mrs. Wm. Haack, nee Edith May Cristman, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cristman, passed away Saturday night at the home of her parents, and was laid to rest in Vashon cemetery on Monday afternoon. Funeral services were held at the Baptist church, Burton, where a large congregation had gathered to sympathize with the stricken husband and parents. The fitting sermon by Rev. Gebert of Vashon, and the two solos by Miss Stewart, were very impressive. The bright day, full of sunshine, and the beautiful flowers showered on the casket were omens of life that is not all shadow. Mrs. Haack left an infant son three days old and another son two years old. Our sympathy is extended the husband and parents, upon whom the blow falls hard.

The Baptist Ladies' Aid of Burton will hold a sale of useful articles on Thursday, April 1st, at 3:00 p. m.

COVE

Mrs. E. O. Rindal is entertaining Miss Berg from Ballard.

Mr. W. G. Doyle motored over to the hub (Vashon) the other day.

Mr. H. O. Thomason had some land buyers out on Sunday looking at his place.

Mr. Geo. Jorgensen has been off duty on the Virginia IV for some time, nursing a crippled foot.

Mr. Victor Servold is busy laying the foundation for another new poultry house. Hen-house building seems to be a regular fever.

Several times when at the store the mail carrier, Mr. McIntosh, has been buying oats. Rather an odd feed for his "Lizzie," unless he is trying to put more ginger in to it, like they do horses.

The Cove dock is getting rather cramped nowadays, owing to the large amount of business done. Counted six autos, three teams, with wagon, then the big Vashon-Maury truck was maneuvering around one day at boat time.

Mr. A. L. Hotchkiss is pretty busy building fences for yards getting his brooder house in order for that 1,500 bunch of baby chicks. Mr. Patten, his right-hand man, has been building the furnace, putting up a brick flue.

Mr. Carl Petersen was clearing up his place on the waterfront one day last week. Just back from Europe. The steamer "West Ereta," on which he sailed last fall from Seattle, foundered on the rocks off the coast of Holland, breaking in two, a total loss.

Mr. Knute Paulson met with quite a mishap the other day. His horse took fright at the Seattle Bakery wagon as he was driving up the Cove hill and plunged down

Susan B. Anthony's Prophecy Fulfilled

Suffrage—equal rights for women—is at last a reality in one of the biggest nations of the world—and to the United States—pioneer in all thoughts of human freedom—goes the honor of being the trail blazer for humanity. Above is a picture review of the great movement. Top, right, is Susan B. Anthony, who launched and lead the first suffrage fight for more than 50 years. She prophesied that "American women would vote in 1920." Top, left, is Carrie Chapman Catt, head of the National Suffrage Party as the measure is adopted. Center, top, the building at Cheyenne, Wyo., where the first territorial assembly vote in any commonwealth of the U. S. Bottom, the suffrage "service flag"—a star for each state, as it ratifies. Edith Alago of the National Woman's Party, is the "Betsy Ross." sewing on the stars. Lower, Alice Paul, head of the National Woman's Party, which also has sponsored and fought for suffrage.

the bank, breaking one wheel and the thills. Fortunately, little damage resulted to the horse, aside from a few bruises.

Most people put up houses, but Mr. Ole Madison and Ben Huseby have for several days been pulling down the old Colvos store building standing on stilts near Cove store. Mr. Petersen, intends to make a two-room cottage out of it—already leased for the summer. Mr. P. has quite an eye for business.

The farewell reception tendered Miss Marie Danielson, the evangelist singer, at the M. E. church last Monday, was largely attended. Nice refreshments, such as our Scandinavian ladies know how to serve, made the occasion doubly pleasant. Miss Danielson is leaving for the East with best wishes of the many friends she has made in our community.

Mr. Martin Tjomsland was at the Hunt ranch for his quota of strawberry plants. Talk about your gold mines! Mr. H. sold last fall 30,000 strawberry plants to the Beall-Hansen Company. Planted some 25,000 himself on leased land on the Doyle ranch. Just sold 10,000 plants. Some 5,000 to dig for Mr. Statelen, and more left. All these plants from 6,000 original vines.

A rather novel sight was seen on our highway the other day. A real live threshing outfit. Mr. Ed Zarth was taking his outfit over to the Statelen ranch to thresh peas. The merry hum of the machine at work carried me back to Minnesota and memories of the days when as a young man we enjoyed working at the stacker. Ed had something of a crew: Albert Abrams, Mr. E. Eldon, Mr. John Wunder, and Mr. Louis Statelen, who came down from Pilchuck to look after the job. Threshed some forty sacks of peas. Nice crop.

Some of our farmerettes (they used to go by the title of "rights women," getting higherlutin now) are getting busy, also. Mrs. Frank Sigrist must have used a square and compass on that strawberry patch—the plants exactly so far apart, the rows so straight—looks mighty fine, all the same.

In talking with Mr. Frank Sigrist one day on the road, he told me the proprietor of the Siegrist Hatchery remarked, "We had another guess coming." Was not much of a Yankee if we did come from "way down East." We reported last week that Mr. Siegrist was running some 16 incubators. He says we came "within 42 of guessing the number." O, dear! There is one thing sure, Mr. Siegrist must have a pleasant disposition to have a good laugh over it instead of getting mad and roasting me to a queen's taste.

A letter from the Federal Reserve bank of San Francisco contains the following: Please take notice that the name of the "War Loan Organization" for this district has been changed to "Government Savings Organization."

Mrs. Josephine Corliss Preston, state superintendent of public instruction, has sent out letters to the 600 community leaders and the 39 county superintendents in this state asking them to cooperate in launching the drive in the schools of the state for raising money for "America's Gift to France. School children throughout the nation during the week of March 22 to 27 will give their pennies, nickels and dimes toward the fund which will aid in the erection of a statue on the bank of the Marne. This money will be sent by teachers of different schools to the offices of the county superintendents and forwarded by them to 150 Nassau Street, New York.

With favorable weather conditions, a plentiful supply of labor and continued demand for their product, the lumber mills of Western Oregon and Western Washington are running on what approximates a capacity basis.

Nine fires out of ten are preventable, and yet a careless public will not take the precaution necessary to prevent the nation's terrific fire loss, which for 1919 amounted to $218,183,475 in the United States and Canada, and for January and February this year it already amounts to $63,644,250. When one considers that a large part of the property burned is worth double today what it was when insured, the tremendous loss can be readily seen, especially when in many instances no increased insurance was carried. In the face of mounting costs of operation, insurance companies have been able to maintain insurance rates on the same basis as before the war, which speaks well for the general management of the business.

The Poultrymen throughout the Northwest are watching the egg-laying contest now being conducted by the Western Washington Experiment Station at Puyallup, and the following monthly report received from George R. Shoup, poultryman, will doubtless be read with great interest by hundreds of our readers:

February Report

The health of the birds has continued satisfactory during the month of February. No moult has developed and we have been able to maintain the previous average production of approximately 60 per cent for all birds entered. This we think is quite creditable, considering that as a result of the hard December freeze there has been a deficiency of the usual kale supply for green feed.

The contest among the leaders is so close that if one of the highest producing hens misses laying one day it means that she drops back, and if one hen in a pen skips a week a change in rating results.

Feed prices for the month of February were as follows: Dry wash, $70; oats, $68; scratch, $82; shell, $22; mangels, $20 per ton; milk, $1 per cwt.; blood, 45 cents per pound.

The average feed cost for February per pen (6 birds) of the Americans, including the Rocks, Wyandottes, Rhode Island Reds and Rhode Island Whites, was $1.94, or 32 cents per bird. The average feed cost for the Mediterranean breeds, including the Leghorns, Orpingtons and Anconas, was $1.71 per pen (6 birds), or 28 cents per bird.

The average net price received for Experiment Station eggs for the month of February was 42 cents for standards and 37 cents for pullets.

Barred Rock Pen Leads

The Barred Rock pen entered by the Oregon Agricultural College stands first in production for the four-month period—474, ties for first place in February—112, and shows the greatest value of marketable value of marketable eggs produced for the four-month period—$21.67.

Carver Brothers' S. C. White Leghorn pen ties with the Oregon Agricultural College Rocks in production of eggs for February and their hen No. 2 ties with Paul B. Towne's Leghorn hen No. 32 with 28 eggs for the month, and 110 eggs for the four-month period.

Mr. Towne's pen No. 4, S. C. White Leghorns shows the highest value of eggs for February—$3.79, and his hen No. 32 the highest value of eggs for the month—97 cents.

Wait & Son's bird No. 69, S. C. W. Leghorn stands at the top in value of eggs during the four-month period—$5.05.

According to a statement issued by F. N. Rhodes, state horticultural inspector, 5,845 cars of fruit and vegetables were shipped to Seattle during the year 1919.

At the meeting in the office of the county commissioners on Tuesday forenoon, to hear arguments for and against the petition for a paved road from Vashon Heights to Barton, the Islands were well represented. There were some good arguments made by both those favoring the proposed improvement and those opposed to it. At the close of the hearing the commissioners stated they would announce their decision in one week, namely, on March 30th, at their regular meeting.

The estimates submitted by County Engineer James are as follows:

For a concrete or brick road 10.6 miles in length, 20 feet wide, $444,631. Included in this estimate is the sum of $40,421, to cover engineering cost, appraisal, etc.

For a road 18 feet wide, $400,730. Included in this is the sum of $36,400, to cover engineering cost, appraisal, etc.

For a road 16 feet wide and 18 feet at curves, $354,383. Included in this estimate is the sum of $32,217, to cover engineering cost, appraisal, etc.

It was pointed out that other communities were clamoring for similar improvements at this time under the Donohue Act, and if Vashon did not take advantage of this offer, the assistance would go elsewhere, and it would then be problematical when the Islands could get the improvement. The time to act is NOW. Seize the opportunity while it is kicking at our door.

Determination to conduct a sales campaign throughout the State of Washington during the week of April 12 to 18, inclusive, for $500,000 to construct a mammoth athletic stadium upon the University of Washington campus at Seattle, was the result of a state-wide convention of Washington alumni held at the Elks' Club, Seattle, on Sunday, March 21st.

L. Dumbleton of Glen Acres visited the county seat of King on Tuesday.

An international mining convention will be held in Seattle from April 7 to 10, inclusive, under the auspices of the Puget Sound Section of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers and the Seattle Chamber of Commerce and Commercial Club. Convention headquarters will be at 1316-18 L. C. Smith Building, and the convention hall will be at the Arena.

Immigration out of this country still exceeds numbers coming in. Since January 10,000 more went out than came in. Which may account for the increasing shortage of farm labor reported in the West.

will add proportionally to the burden of all others. If all who labor would go no further than to insist that their wages should be on the same relative level as the wages of all others, and should strive to increase the daily production, a few months would bring a material measure of relief. This movement to be successful, however, must be as varied and as wide as are the industries of the nation. No one class can travel this road alone, and any class that attempts to do so will incur burdens greater than it can bear. But if all will join in a common effort to increase the daily production, and if prodigality can be stayed, conditions will right themselves within a comparatively short time. In other words the remedy for present ills may be stated in three words: "Work and Save." Farmers' wages are determined by the prices of their products; and the prices of farm products are at present on a relatively lower level than are wages in other industries. This results in farmers bearing more than their proportionate part of the common burdens. These depressed prices mean decreased production and a declining agriculture. Unless this basic industry can prosper, no other can long prosper. If any industry can be defined as basic it is the one that is self-sustaining and self-perpetuating; one that was in the beginning with the birth of civilization, and without which civilization must perish.—John D. Miller.

From the stars of the night and the dewy grass of the spring mornings, in the notes of the birds and the music of little rills, through all of the myriad voices of nature, there comes the healing touch of patience, the consciousness that vast, eternal forces go on their majestic way quite untroubled by the ferment of human brains and the hot impulses of human hearts. EBERT GOVERNMENT AGAIN IN CONTROL

President and Cabinet Meet in Berlin and Promise to Punish Guilty.

Berlin.—The government of President Ebert, which left Berlin when Dr. Wolfgang Kapp and his reactionary troops entered the city, is again in power in the capital. President Ebert and the members of his ministry reached here at 11 o'clock Sunday morning from Stuttgart.

Public services have in a measure been re-established, and it is hoped that Berlin will soon resume its normal activities, though it will be a long time before the damage, material and moral, will be repaired.

The immensity of the damage caused in Germany by the revolution and the consequent uprising and the government's present determination to prosecute the guilty were voiced by President Ebert.

The situation in parts of the country appears serious. From the group of industrial centers on the Rhine and the Ruhr district continue to come reports of spartacan agitation. In several places, particularly the Ruhr district, the spartacans are said to be in absolute control. Here their available force is estimated at 70,000 men.

Concentration of loyal government forces, however, is taking place and their arrival at the scenes of disorder is expected to bring quiet.

While the resignation of Gustav Noske, minister of defense, has been demanded by the radicals, it is considered probable that he will retain his post for a time at least in order to restore the confidence of the Berlin population generally.

JURY FINDS SENATOR NEWBERRY IS GUILTY

Grand Rapids, Mich.—Truman H. Newberry, junior United States senator from Michigan, was convicted by a jury of having conspired criminally in 1918 to violate the election laws. He was sentenced by Judge Clarence W. Sessions to two years' imprisonment and fined $10,000. Released on bond pending an appeal, he at once issued a statement declaring his intention to retain his seat in the senate unless that body decides otherwise, or the supreme court upholds his conviction.

Sharing the fate of the senator were his brother, John S. Newberry, and 15 campaign managers, including Frederick Cody, New York, and Paul H. King, Detroit. Both these men received the limit sentence with their chief.

Charles A. Floyd, Detroit, also was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary, but he was fined only half as much as Newberry. The brother was fined $10,000 and was one of four who were not sentenced to Leavenworth.

HUNGARY TO FORCE LOAN

Half of Money in Circulation to be Taken Up.

Budapest.—The government has ordered all banks closed and that preparations be made to commence the stamping of all money in circulation in Hungary. Money in the hands of the people must be presented to the banks, and the bearer is to receive stamped money in half the amount presented.

The other half is to be converted into state bonds to be redeemable in a few years. The bonds will bear interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum.

There is the greatest excitement throughout the country, because the peasantry has hoarded huge sums of "blue money." The farmers are trying to avoid loss by asking double prices for their products, and are demanding payment in silver, gold or manufactured articles.

Grain Investigators Named.

Washington.—A sub-committee headed by Senator La Follette, Republican, Wisconsin, was named to conduct the senate's investigation of the United States Grain corporation. The other members are Senator Fernald, Maine, and Gronna, North Dakota, Republicans, and Reed, Missouri, and Walsh Massachusetts, Democrats.

PORTLAND MAY HAVE MILK WAR

Portland, Or.—By fixing a net price to Portland dealers of $3.50 for 100 pounds of milk delivered and declaring almost unanimously for the proposed reorganization of its present association, based purely on co-operation, members of the Oregon Dairy-men's league at a meeting here took a step which may lead either to the lowering of retail prices or the fiercest war this city has even seen in the business.

The producers contend that at this rate the retailers could reduce the price of milk to consumers from 15 to 13 cents a quart.

A virtual ultimatum has been given the dealers, more familiarly known as distributors to the city population, both by the action taken at the meeting of producers and by means of a proposed contract submitted to the dealers by the authority of the board of directors of the league.

THREE COMMUNISTS GUILTY

Oregon State Syndicalism Act Held to Have Been Violated.

Portland, Or.—Karl W. Oster, state secretary of the communist labor party in Oregon; Fred W. Fry and Claud Hurst, local financial secretary of the organization, were found guilty of criminal syndicalism by a jury in the court of Circuit Judge Morrow.

Oster and Hurst have been two of the leading spirits in the organization of the communist labor party in Oregon, a society which was found by the jury to advocate violence as a means of effecting industrial and political revolution in the United States. Membership in the party was admitted by all defendants and the vital issue of the case was the nature of the program to which the defendants had pledged support.

ADRIATIC PROPOSAL IS PARTLY ACCEPTED

President Outlines Basis For Settlement but Objects to Treaty of London.

Washington.—President Wilson accepts with reservations the proposal of the British and French premiers that Italy and Jugo-Slavia undertake a settlement of the Adriatic question. He says that if Italy and Jugo-Slavia prefer to abandon the so-called buffer state containing an overwhelming majority of Jugo-Slavs and desire to limit the proposed free state to the corpus separatum of Fiume, placing the sovereignty in the league of nations without either Italian or Jugo-Slav control, the United States is willing to leave the determination of the common frontier to Italy and Jugo-Slavia.

The president says he "cannot possibly join" the premiers' suggestion that the memorandum settlement of December 9 be withdrawn; declares that "Albanian questions should not be included in the proposed joint discussions," and reiterates that the United States cannot approve of the execution of the terms of the treaty of London.

Finally, he expressed the "earnest hope that the allied governments will not find it necessary to decide on a course which the American government, in accordance with its reiterated statement will be unable to follow."

The president's note to the premiers is now being considered by the allied supreme council at London. Meantime, direct negotiations between Jugo-Slavia and Italy are proceeding.

German War Craft Coming to America.

Washington.—Five German surrendered warships allocated to the United States under the armistice terms, a battleship, a cruiser and three destroyers will be brought to this country next month, it was announced by the navy department. Under the supreme council agreement, the ships must be destroyed within a year after arrival here.

LANE MAKES FINAL REPORT TO WILSON

Retiring Secretary Says Organization of Official Washington Is Poor.

Washington.—Official Washington "a combination of political caucuses, drawingroom and civil service bureaus" containing "statesmen who are politicians and politicians who are not statesmen" is poorly organized for its task which "fewer men of larger capacity would do better."

Such is an epitome of the views of Franklin K. Lane, retiring secretary of the interior, expressed in a characteristic parting report to the president on the occasion of leaving public life Monday after more than 20 years' service—the last seven in the cabinet.

"Washington," says the retiring secretary, "is rich in brains and character. It is honest beyond any commercial standard. It wishes to do everything that will promote the public good. But it is poorly organized for the task that belongs to it. Fewer men of larger capacity would do the task better. Ability is not lacking, but it is pressed to the point of paralysis because of an infinitude of details and unwillingness on the part of the great body of the public servants to take responsibility."

"We could save money for the government if we had more discretion as to how we should use that given us. For the benefit of the civil servants there should be quicker promotion or discharge and a sure insurance when disability comes. For the higher administrative offices there should be salaries twice as high as those now given and they should be made to feel that they are the ones responsible for the work of the department."

TWO PARLIAMENTS PROVIDED FOR IRISH

London.—By the provisions of the new Irish home rule bill, two parliaments will be set up—one for the north and the other for the south of Ireland; the northern to consist of 52 members and the southern of 128 members. The representation in the imperial parliament would be 12 for north Ireland and 36 for south Ireland, necessitating the reapportionment of Ireland, which is provided for in the bill.

The northern area would be composed of the counties of Antrim, Armagh, Down, Fermanagh, Londonderry and Tyrone and the boroughs of Belfast and Londonderry.

A council for Ireland, composed of 40 members, half of whom would be selected by each of the parliaments, is also provided for in the bill. The legislative powers of the new council would be only those granted it by the two legislatures, but the framers of the bill hope it will form a nucleus around which would be built one parliament for the whole of Ireland.

CREDIT RESTRICTION DESIRE

Conservative Policy Urged By Banks, According to Federal Report.

Washington.—Early ending of the general expansion which has characterized war and immediate post-war periods were forecast in a statement summarizing February business conditions issued by the federal reserve board. The upward movement of prices, so far as the board could ascertain, generally had not met with any check.

Financial and banking authorities everywhere were asserted to be looking more seriously at the general situation in credits and beginning to urge the adoption of conservative policies. While the review asserted that this could not be accepted as meaning that the "era of speculation" had been absolutely checked, there was said to be the indisputable evidence that banks were exercising a "greater degree of discrimination and judgment in complying with the demands of their customers."

Liquor Moving Is Legal.

Washington.—Liquor owners may transfer their stocks legally from one dwelling to another only when there is an actual change of residence and then only under special permit, according to an announcement by the internal revenue bureau, issued to correct published reports that owners of two or more dwellings might move their stock from one to the other unhampered.

Japanese on Increase in Hawaii.

Washington.—The Japanese population of Hawaii has increased from a handful 30 years ago to 120,000 persons, Governor McCarthy of the territory told the senate immigration committee. He asked that congress cooperate in Americanizing the alien population of the islands, declaring that orientals constituted more than 50 per cent of the total.

WASHINGTON HOLDS LEGISLATIVE SESSION

Olympia, Wash.—Washington's legislature met here Monday noon in a special session, the third special session in 10 years of statehood.

As recommended by the joint appropriation committee the matters to be considered by the legislators were first, the general tax levy limitations; second, the common school emergency; third, the soldiers' compensation measure; fourth, the national women's suffrage amendment; fifth, provision for a commission to be appointed by the governor to make a study and survey of the present common school laws and to make a report of the conditions found and to make report and such recommendations as necessary to the regular session of the legislature, in January, 1921.

The officers of the last legislature, Dr. P. H. Carlyn, president of the senate, and Fred A. Adams, speaker of the house, called the two bodies to order.

Right measures of economy, rather than greater appropriations, are needed in all departments of the state government, Hart declared in his message.

Money is needed by all the state schools, the governor said. The condition of the schools is deplorable, he asserted. Hundreds of teachers, he said, are quitting their profession for more remunerative employment.

The governor's message warned the legislators not to hold a long session and not to pass any appropriation bills.

"Never was the general sentiment of the people of the state more completely crystallized upon any matter than in the present demand that the legislators speedily attend to the business they find at hand to go and return to their homes, thus relieving the citizens of any anxiety as to what new legislation may be enacted," he declared.

BRIEF GENERAL NEWS

Total exports of the United States during February were $446,000,000, the lowest figure since October, 1919, the commerce department announced.

No American citizens or other foreigners were injured as far as it is known in the recent counter revolution in Germany, according to dispatches reaching the state department from Berlin.

The war department has announced that approximately 2000 soldiers, sailors and marines of the American forces abroad during the war brought back foreign wives. French girls were most popular.

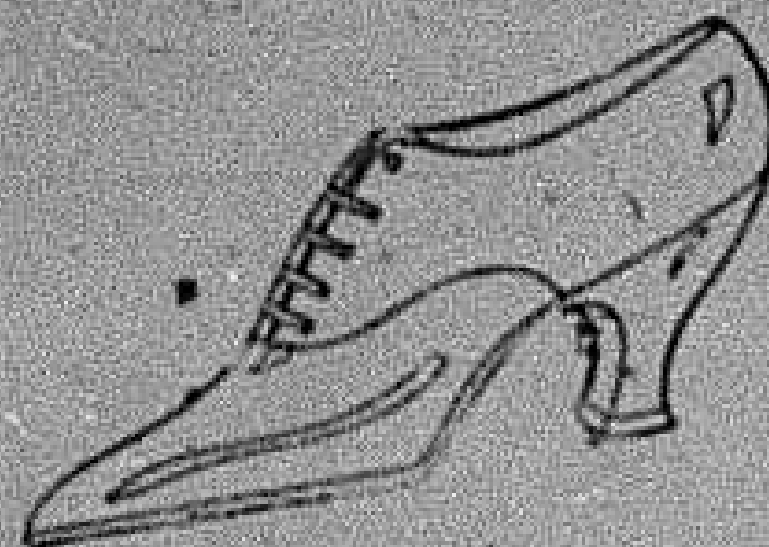

The senate finance committee favorably reported without amendment the Fordney bill providing for the disposal of 5,000,000 barrels of soft wheat flour by the grain corporation to European nations on credit.

From all sections of the Middle West come reports of severe disturbances, causing from subsiding dust clouds in Kansas to stinging blizzards in the Dakotas, with a compromise further east or west and cold rains. Germany apparently has escaped from the menace of the Von Kapp insurrection in Berlin, only to face a more serious threat in the spread of Bolshevism. Eight of the largest cities of the great industrial district of Westphalia, centering around the steel manufacturing city of Essen, were reported in the hands of communists.

A warm, comfortable henhouse will do much to secure a good egg yield, for fowls that are not comfortable cannot lay well.

There is not much danger that healthy, vigorous fowls will become too fat, if compelled to exercise by scratching for the grain part of their ration.

COVE COMMENTS

It's a pity there is not some Burbank in the poultry business. If there was he might evolve a Leghorn without wings, or at any rate just rudimentary ones—just so they could not fly, then a two-foot fence would keep them in and save a lot of bother.

One learns something every day in the chicken business. For instance, I had made the usual small opening so the baby chicks could go in and out of the brooder house. They came out alright, but it was another problem getting them in again, as they would bunch up in the corners of the run. However, a bright idea struck me: to hinge the board next the floor full length, and it worked like a charm. The fluffy rascals poured out like a stream going over a ledge, and a cough or sneeze sent them back in a brace of shakes, so no more trouble from that source.

Another scheme I evolved was a runway for the hens. After they had finished the enclosure next the house, I built the runway of 12-in. planks on edge, 15 in. wide and topped with slats, making it pos-

POULTRY FACTS

GOOSE MEAT IS NUTRITIOUS

Fowls Will Be Found Profitable in Regions of Cheap Land and Abundant Pasturage.

If the goose of the fable was able to lay a golden egg there is no reason why her progeny of the present era cannot repeat this miracle in a more concrete form. Goose meat is nutritious and palatable and not greasy when properly cooked, and an extension of goose raising in the regions of cheap land where pasturage is abundant is a suggested source of cheaper meat.

Geese are raised chiefly in the South and middle West, Kentucky, Tennessee, Missouri and Arkansas being the chief supply sources. During the decade ending in 1910 the total number of geese declined 22 per cent, largely because of the lack of cheap pasture and the limited demand for goose feathers and goose flesh.

The Toulouse, Emden, Chinese and African are the most popular American breeds of geese, the first two greatly leading the others. Occasionally the eggs are used for cooking, but generally geese are kept only for meat and feather production. Practically all the geese in this country are raised in small flocks on general farms, some men making a specialty of collecting large numbers of geese and fattening them for a few weeks before they are killed. As grass makes up the bulk of feed for geese, it is doubtful whether it pays to raise them unless good grass range is available during the summer. A pool of water for bathing and recreational purposes is also a desirable feature.

The market for geese is not so general as for chickens. This point should be considered in undertaking the raising of geese. The demand and the price paid for geese are usually good in sections where goose fattening is conducted on a large scale.

Geese are hardy birds and need shelter only in the worst weather. An empty shed or an old barn usually is satisfactory for this purpose. From 4 to 25 geese may be kept on an acre of land, although under most conditions ten is a fair average. Wherever possible the geese should have free range during the grass season. Southern plantation owners keep geese to kill the weeds in the cotton fields.

The eggs may be hatched by either hens or geese. Some breeders prefer to raise all the goslings under hens, as geese sometimes become difficult to manage when allowed to hatch and rear their young. The period of incubation of goose eggs varies from 28 to 30 days.

Goslings do not need food until they are twenty-four to thirty-six hours old, when they should be fed one of the mashers recommended for chickens or goslings, or a mash or dough of two-thirds shorts (middlings) and one-third cornmeal, which can be made of equal parts shorts and cornmeal, with 5 per cent of beef scrap added after the goslings are six weeks old. Bread and milk make an excellent feed for young goslings. Fine grit or sharp sand should also be available in cold weather.

Most geese breeders do not confine their geese for fattening, but feed them freely a few weeks on a fattening ration before they are to be marketed. The geese may be confined for two or three weeks and fattened, but some green feed or vegetables should be added to the ration.

FEED SUPPLIED TO POULTRY

Several Different Substances That Go to Make Eggs Must Be Available in Hen's Ration.

The kind of feed supplied the hen is fully as important as the quantity. The egg is made up of several different substances and unless these are available in the ration eggs cannot be produced.

DISCARD ALL INACTIVE HENS

Old Fowls Are Better Working Members Than Those That Are Physically Weak.

When weeding out flocks a good place to begin is with the hens that are not thrifty and active. Old hens often are better working members of the feathered family than those that are physically weak all the time.

STAR DUST

A FAMILY AFFAIR

By Violet Moore Higgins
Mr. and Mrs. Movie Fan—most Mr. "Wally" Reid Junior. By the way, the lady smiling at him is Mrs. Wallace Reid Senior (Dorothy Davenport) and as for the man back of her, that's Wallace Reid, the Paramount Aircraft star, who has often been called the handsomest man in the films.

There was once a time when if a handsome young actor had a wife—or worse yet—a family—it was kept a dark secret. There was an idea that if the real-life girls ever learned the awful truth, they wouldn't be interested in the actor any more, and so the play would fall and the manager would fall and the world would come to an end generally.

But things are different now, and the stage folk and the folk of filmland live just such happy

FARM DOULTY

REDUCTION IN EGG BREAKAGE

Matter of Much Importance That Smaller Proportion Than Ever Be Injured in Transit.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

An egg broken accidentally before it leaves the farm usually goes on the farm table, and nothing is lost. Eggs broken at the grocery may be disposed of at reduced prices as cracked eggs and little actual food loss results. But the egg broken after it is packed for shipment is likely to be a thoroughly bad egg before it arrives at its destination and become a total loss. With eggs selling at record prices, it is a matter of importance that a smaller proportion of eggs than ever before are broken in transit. This result was brought about by the co-operative efforts of the United States department of agriculture and the United States railroad administration. Employees of the railroad administration were detailed to the bureau of chemistry, where they received instruction in proper methods of loading and stowing eggs in freight cars. Whenever cars were received at terminals in a badly damaged condition, these employees of the railroad administration paid personal visits to the shippers for the purpose of instructing them how properly to load cars to avoid damage in future shipments. The result, according to the report of the chief of the bureau of chemistry, is a material diminution in the breakage of eggs during transportation.

GOOD QUALITIES OF GUINEAS

Have Large, Plump Breasts and Gamy Flavor That is Enjoyed by Many Epicureans.

Guineas have large, plump breasts and a gamy flavor that is much enjoyed by some farmers. They are good foragers and easy to raise and their clacking will frighten hawks or sound an alarm if other intruders come to the poultry range. Their disadvantages are not serious, but they will fly into the garden and sometimes do a little damage and the old birds are often quarrelsome with the young poultry. They can be allowed to roost in the house with the old birds and they will lay their eggs in the same nests.

DOULTRY NOTES

Don't figure why a black hen lays a white egg, but get the egg.

Root crops make excellent succulent food for hens where plenty of green grass or rye can not be had.

The Emden is probably the most beautiful of all domestic water fowl, it being a pure white, and, like the Toulouse, very large.

Keep the drinking vessels clean. Put a little lime into the bottom of them twice a week. Don't forget to give the fowls a little salt, in some form, every day.

If hens are crowded too closely, the house soon gets foul and the birds cannot obtain sufficient exercise because they have not sufficient space to move around.

ROOSEVELT FOR WOOD

Theodore, Jr., Lauds His Administrative Ability.

New York.—Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., member of the New York assembly, has issued a statement formally announcing that he will support to the utmost the candidacy of Leonard Wood for presidential nominee on the Republican ticket.

"It gives me great pleasure to endorse the candidacy of General Wood," he says. "He is a man of fearless disposition and strikes out boldly for what he considers right. He is a man of proven experience as an administrator. He has demonstrated this ability in Cuba and the Philippines."

"He has thought out on liberal and constructive lines the great economic problems we will meet in this country in the coming decade. Under him I feel confident that the country will work forward to a very increasing influence and stability."

LEADER JOINS WOOD

Speech of Opponent Turns Dakotan's Beliefs.

Aberdeen, S. D.—State Senator H. P. Hill, one of the most well-known Republicans in South Dakota, has announced he will support Leonard Wood for presidential nominee.

"I was originally for Governor Lowden of Illinois," Hill explained, "but after hearing him speak at Mitchell the other day I have decided that Wood is a much stronger man, from every standpoint, for president of this nation. We need an administrator, a man capable of gigantic organization, and I believe Leonard Wood's tremendous governmental experience makes him the logical choice of all now in the field."

SAME OLD BUNCH

The following was published in last week's issue of the Kent Advertiser-Journal:

"Kent business men who took such a live interest in the establishment of ferry service between Des Moines and Portage will have an opportunity to listen to the echo from the old ferry battle fought on Vashon Island a few years ago.

"On next Tuesday at ten o'clock in the morning the same old bunch telling the same old story will be heard at the office of the King County Commissioners, the occasion being the hearing to be had on a petition for some ten and a half miles of paved road on the Island. This petition, under the Donohue law, calls for a 20 foot concrete road between Burton, Portage (it doesn't extend to the Portage ferry landing) and Vashon Heights.

"The necessity for this proposed improvement, to cost approximately $400,000, is not altogether clear to one not familiar with the situation. The road to be paved is one upon which $50,000 was spent about five years ago, and the one road to which Islanders point with great pride. Just why this road should be hard surfaced, all other roads on the Island being allowed to suffer for the need of attention, is a mystery to the uninitiated.

"There seems to be but one answer: Pave the road to the Heights and thereby kill the ferry between Portage and Des Moines. Do this regardless of the wish or best interests of the greatest number, and of the county. This is the battle cry and is clearly the whole object in view. The scheme is being put through by the same old bunch who opposed the ferry between Portage and Des Moines in favor of Vashon Heights and against the wish of the great majority of the citizens and taxpayers of the Island as twice expressed by ballot.

"A remonstrance bearing the signatures of hundreds of Vashon Island residents and taxpayers will be presented urging that the petition be denied. This is not done with the idea in mind that our county commissioners are not wise enough to see the 'nigger in the fence,' but to furnish them with an expression of the public mind. Nor is it done because any of our people would object to having paved roads. On the other hand we would rejoice in such improvement, but we do not, however, believe this is the time to put over this work, nor do we believe that it is at all necessary, the present road being the only good road on the Island and is good enough for anybody. We shall spend one-fourth the amount this work would cost in improving and graveling the other roads, making them as good as this one and the Island would soon blossom out as a favorite drive for the pleasure seeker and the lover of nature, above all else we emphasize the one thought—We are opposed to this or any other improvement made at the expense of the Portage-Des Moines ferry.

A VASHONITE."

The following was published on another page of the same paper:

A prominent Vashon Island citizen writes the Advertiser-Journal as follows:

"Noting in one of your recent issues of the report of county commissioners in regard to petition for paving on Vashon Island, perhaps it would be well for your people to know the real object of the proposed improvement. The scheme is to pave the road to the north end ferry landing. Believing this would put the Des Moines ferry out of service we are busy circulating a remonstrance and will fight the proposition through the courts if necessary."
